This incorporates authentic historic homes to entrepreneurial businesses, to "performing plus" schools, community park and recreation areas, arts, music and cultural experiences, as well as overall community life.

Overview

The event will consist of a Neighborhood Tour which will highlight Coronado's most unique homes, businesses and public art exhibits. A vibrant festival can be experienced at Coronado Park featuring interactive booths, children's activities, live music and art performances. Local Coronado businesses will be open and offering incentives to patrons.

This will take place within the Coronado neighborhood. The Neighborhood Tour will emphasize those houses chosen for the tour and there will be certain activities/entertainment throughout the neighborhood. The festival itself will take place in Coronado Park.

Charitable Component
